講演 Professor Pierre Lévy

Prof. dr. Pierre Lévy (PhD in Kansei Science, 2006, the University of Tsukuba) is professor at the National Conservatory of Arts and Crafts (CNAM) in France, holder of the Chair of Design Jean Prouvé, and researcher at the Dicen-IDF lab. He is interested in the correspondence between theories and design practices, especially regarding transforming practices and sciences. His research mainly focuses on embodiment theories and Japanese philosophy and culture in relation to designing for the everyday. He holds a Mechanical Engineering master's degree (UT Compiègne, France), a doctoral degree in Kansei (affective) Science (University of Tsukuba, Japan), and a HDR in Information and Communication Sciences (UT Compiègne, France). He is also co-founder and former president of the European Kansei Group (EKG) and co-coordinator of the Kansei Engineering and Emotion Research (KEER) Steering Committee.
